

Dear MTVA members,

This will be another great year for the MTVA Choral Festival! With 33 Middle School Choirs and 56 High School Choirs participating (most of which had special requests), scheduling was a challenge, but all schedule requests were honored. The complete schedule is listed below. Please note that scheduling is pending for choirs listed in bold print.

Please note that most schools bringing multiple choirs were given 45 minutes between ensembles so that the director can exit the sightreading room and take the next choir to warm-up. However, for some schools, only 30 minutes were given between groups. This was necessary for those schools with 4+ choirs with time constraints and for a few middle schools, the latter due to the number of schools we scheduled on Tuesday. If you were only given 30 minutes between choirs, tell the sightreading adjudicator that you need to leave ten minutes after your assigned time so that you can make it to sightreading. Plan your day accordingly – I encourage you to bring a trustworthy parent who can help you direct students from place to place.

For those of you who are new to the process – welcome! Don't feel too overwhelmed over the logistics of the day. Each choir is assigned a "choir aide" – a student from Siegel High School who will guide you from the time you come to FUMC Murfreesboro to the time you leave. This student will be able to answer every question you have and lead you around the church campus on time.

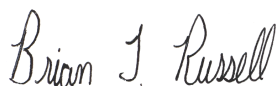

To all participating directors – I would like to print a program this year so we can refer to them in future years. I have found these programs invaluable in years past. You have some responsibility in making this happen. First, check the name of your ensemble and your name for correct spelling, etc. as this is how it will be printed in the program. Secondly, make sure your choirs are performing in the order you want. If there is a change within your school's times, please let me know by February 9. Finally, watch your email around the week of February 19. I will send a message to all participating directors asking for your musical selections. If you already know and would like to email them to me, you can send that to brianrussell@msn.com. Please send them in the following format:

Name of piece	[First Initial]. [Last Name]
i.e., Weep, o Mine Eyes	J. Bennett

Finally, I cannot honor any further schedule change requests. If you require a time/date change, you may contact other directors and attempt a switch. However, I must be notified in writing by all participating directors. Any "switches" need to be completed by February 9.

Of course, please check the "Adjudication Festival" event page on the MTVA website for information about the day. Please pay close attention to details such as bus entrance and parking, registration, etc. We are fortunate to have this relationship with FUMC Murfreesboro – let's work together to honor their hospitality and make this festival seamless in operation. Should you have any reason to contact me, please do not hesitate to do so!

Enthusiastically,

Brian T. Russell
Choir Director – White House High School
